VOLUME IV. NUMBER 14

NARBERTH, PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 1918

PRICE TWO CENTS

BIG TOWN MEETING NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT TO HEAR ALL ABOUT THE NEW NARBERTH PLAN

Every Resident of the Borough Invited to Attend

If you are anxious to—
1.—Cut down the cost of living, and
2.—Get standard foodstuffs, of the very best quality reserve next Tuesday night, January 15, for an important engagement.

At that time, in the Arcade Theatre—it is right across the street from the Post Office, will be held the town meeting at which will be explained, completely and in detail, the Narberth Plan.

The speakers will be W. R. D. Hall, chairman of the General Committee that has developed the Narberth Plan, and A. B. Ross, also of Narberth, and father of the Narberth Plan. Mr. Ross is on the staff of the Committee of Public Safety and is engaged right now in assisting committees and organizations in perfecting plans for reducing the high cost of living and putting the food problem on an intelligent war basis.

Wide local interest in the Narberth Plan and what it is expected to do, has already been aroused and a big meeting is expected. Therefore, if you want to be sure of getting in and hearing the speakers and learning just what the Plan proposes to do, we urge you to be on hand early. The meeting will be called promptly at eight o'clock.

Every home in Narberth should be represented at this meeting, and if it is possible, the committee hopes that the husband and wife in each family will attend. The steady rise in the cost of living during the last ten years and the acute conditions resulting from our country's entrance into the war, have made the food problem the most vital matter directly affecting every home.

As an individual you are absolutely helpless in this crisis. Individual economy in buying and using cannot solve the problem and can bring but the meagerest results at best. It is only as all the people in a community get together and act collectively that effective and lasting results can be obtained.

The committee of citizens who volunteered to develop the plan suggested by Mr. Rose, have worked on the proposition for weeks, holding many meetings and conferences. Mr. Rose has made frequent trips to Narberth from various parts of the State, where he was engaged in other work, in order that he might attend the committee meetings and conferences—usually being compelled to travel all night in order to get back to his other work at the earliest possible moment.

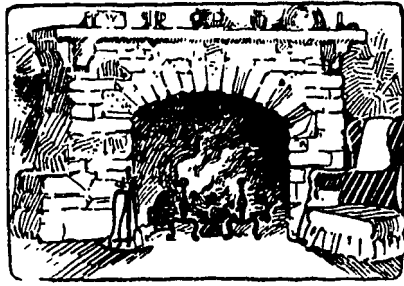

Now the Narberth Plan is, so far as it is possible for the committee to go, perfected and ready to be submitted to the people at large. That's what the speakers will do at the town meeting next Tuesday night, in the Arcade Theatre. As a resident of this borough, you owe it to yourself, your family and your neighbors to attend this meeting and hear what the Plan is, criticize it if you see faults or weaknesses in it, and support it if you believe that it is sound and will do what its originator and the members of the General Committee believe it will do.

You have nothing to lose by attending the meeting and everything to gain if the Plan is approved and put into operation.

So be on hand early next Tuesday evening, January 15, at eight o'clock, at the Arcade Theatre. Never in the history of the borough have the residents had the opportunity to participate in a plan having to do with such a vital problem.

Remember next Tuesday evening, January 15, 8 P. M., in the Arcade Theatre, directly across the street from the Post Office.

Finally, the committee wishes to thank the management of the Arcade Theatre for the courtesy shown in tendering the use of the theatre for next Tuesday night's meeting.

DEATH OF GEORGE BARRIE

It is with great regret that we are compelled to announce the death of one of Narberth's most highly respected citizens. Mr. George Barrie died on Friday, January 4, of pneumonia, after an illness of only four days. Mr. Barrie was exposed to the severe cold weather on the Monday preceding. This brought on the attack that terminated so quickly and fatally.

Mr. Barrie was widely known through the large publishing business with which he was connected. His private library was unusually fine, including many rare and splendid examples of the binder's art.

BURGESS DOWNES' MESSAGE

Narberth, Pa., Jan. 7, 1918.

To the President and Members of Borough Council:
Gentlemen:

In presenting to your consideration this first message, I am reminded of the fact that a majority of your number are, like myself, new recruits in the business of directing the affairs of our Borough. All of you, however, whether new members or those who have given long and faithful service in the management of affairs, are no doubt, as I believe I am, animated with a single desire, namely, to give such a businesslike and efficient administration of our duties that the interests of our citizens may be intelligently promoted, so that residents of Narberth may point with satisfaction to the results achieved on their behalf through our joint labors.

To this end I now call to your attention certain matters which I feel may profitably engage your consideration.

1st. The Borough Streets. It is almost needless to say that in these days of widely extended increase in travel, the condition of the streets of a town proclaim the characteristics of its citizens as the clothes of a man indicate something of the kind of man beneath the apparel. Therefore, I believe that in the construction and maintenance of our streets the thought of permanence and durability should be uppermost in your thoughts. I understand that a lack of funds for new construction will make it necessary for your Honorable Body to practice some economies in building new roads, especially in view of the fact that costs of construction during the period of the War are likely to remain unreasonably high. I therefore feel that your attention should be largely concentrated upon the most intelligent method and practice of maintaining streets already in good condition, and in repairing certain other streets that may show urgent need of it.

Finances in Connection With Borough Streets. In view of the fact that the cost of borrowed money is likely to remain at a high figure for some time to come, it is unlikely that your Honorable Body will be inclined to advise a bond issue for the promotion of new work within the Borough. This suggests the inquiry whether Borough Council should not consider the wisdom of constructing sewers, and improving streets by assessing the cost, or a just proportion thereof, against abutting properties, rather than pay the cost thereof out of current revenues, which I understand has been largely employed in the past. It seems to me that if current revenues are required to assume the burden of the cost of new work, it is almost impossible to expect the taxable revenues to provide the funds necessary for the proper maintenance and repair of streets and other public property.

Collection of Ashes and Garbage. I am informed that suitable arrangements have already been effected for the collection of garbage during the present year. While I have no definite thought in mind as to best method to be employed in the collection of ashes from the homes of our citizens, I would suggest that the members of your Honorable Body give earnest thought in the effort to secure the method that will best conserve the taxpayers' money as well as give comfort and convenience to the dwellers within our borders.

New Station, Post Office and Tunnel at Essex Avenue. I understand that the retiring Council has already made substantial progress in the efforts to co-operate with the Pennsylvania Railroad for the construction of a new station, a new building in which the Post Office may be suitably housed, and the extension of Essex Avenue under the Railroad tracks at Haverford Avenue. All of these proposed improvements are matters of prime importance, and I have no doubt that your Honorable Body will advance all efforts to bring their completion to a happy realization.

The Civic Association. The Narberth Civic Association, composed of public-spirited men and women, has done a great deal to improve the beauty and add to the general attractiveness of our Borough. Narbrook Park, improved at a cost of more than $50,000, without the expenditure thus far of public moneys, has turned an undesirable section of our town into one of great beauty, commanding the favorable comment of our neighbors in adjoining towns, to say nothing of the much-needed increase in taxable values.

I believe it would be a constructive step for Council to establish a close working arrangement with those who are promoting the Civic Association, to the end that an interchange of ideas may work out items of advantage and profit in the affairs of our Borough.

Fire Protection. The preservation of our homes and property from fire rests upon the shoulders of our volunteer fire department. That organization should receive at the hands of your Honorable Body every possible encouragement. I would urge that, consistent with your financial ability, you should, in a pecuniary way, assist the Fire Company in as substantial a manner as possible. This suggests the thought that it may be possible at some early day to devise a method whereby the cost of protection from fire may be borne equally by all taxpayers. This is as it should be. With membership in the Fire Company on a voluntary basis, it inevitably follows that those who are public spirited and willing are required to assume burdens that are shirked by those not so inclined.

In conclusion may I say that your Honorable Body will, at all times, find me ready and eager to confer with you upon questions that may be confronted from time to time. In population and influence our town is rapidly pushing forward. Let us see to it that our management of affairs gives evidence of a progressive spirit in keeping with our growth in other directions.

The Committee extends its thanks to the members of the dance who raised the money for the Soldiers' Tobacco Fund.

YOUR DOG TAX

There seems to be some misunderstanding in regard to the payment of dog taxes for this year, as we stated before the law says the license must be obtained from the County Treasurer. The Township Treasurer does not receive money or issue dog tags. Applications must be made on regular blank forms furnished by the County Treasurer. For the convenience of residents who do not care to go direct to Norristown local Justices of the Peace are authorized to secure the license and they are entitled to a fee of fifteen cents for their services. Dogs not wearing a tag after January 15 can be killed by any officer of the law.

EDITORIAL

The oldest inhabitant is now in his glory, with memories of winters more severe than the present.

But he cannot recall when butter, hen fruit and milk cost more than they do now, to say nothing of coal and wood.

Last Monday morning we noticed several sinners standing on slippery places, but we couldn't. We fell down several times, hurting our dignity, etc.

And never was there a time when the dignity of labor received greater recognition in coin of the realm, cash in hand paid. Why, out West last fall, men were paid $5 per day for pulling sugar beets!

Many a devoted school teacher does not receive half as much per diem for training souls, and eradicating noxious weeds from the garden of the mind. Does this indicate the relative importance of beets and souls?

We are anxiously awaiting full details of the Narberth Plan for reducing the H. C. L. Unless it comes out pretty soon, we shall be compelled to raise the salaries of all of our editors at least 100 per cent., thereby considerably affecting the dividends of the Civic Association.

We trust there will be general response to the appeal for new members of the Y. M. C. A., during the coming systematic campaign to be made during the latter part of January. The association is doing a good work for the young people of Narberth, and merits the support of all. It is a center for varied activities, in which all are interested. The present membership is entirely too small. Even at the best, it must be sustained by contributions of those especially interested in the work. We bespeak a generous response to the canvassers who will conduct the campaign.

Narberth lost another of its prominent citizens Friday when George Barrie, the well-known publisher, died from pneumonia, at his home on Price avenue. Mr. Barrie was ill only a few days. He is survived by a widow and three sons, Robert, Alexander and George Barrie, Jr., all of whom were partners in the publishing business with their father.

Mr. Barrie was born in Scotland in 1843, and early in life was in the employ of a London publishing house, which in 1895 opened a New York branch with Mr. Barrie in charge. Ten years later Mr. Barrie established a book-publishing business in Philadelphia, and for more than thirty years his concern has been one of the best known publishing houses in the East. He was noted for special editions of French and English classics, some of which were awarded medals at the Centennial and other international exhibitions.

GO TO THE TOWN MEETING

"Our Town" hopes that every home in Narberth will be represented at the town meeting to be held next Tuesday evening, in the Arcade Theatre, opposite the postoffice. The meeting will be called at 8 o'clock, and speakers will explain in detail the new Narberth Plan for reducing the high cost of living and establishing a plan for economical marketing.

The plan will not only help you as an individual, in a financial way, but it will enable our borough, as a united community, to assist in the very necessary and urgent war conservation of food. Mr. A. B. Ross, one of our citizens, who originated the plan, and the members of the committee who have developed it, have gladly given of their time and effort for the benefit of the entire community.

The success of the Narberth Plan will depend on the co-operation of all the citizens. So we call upon everyone to attend the important town meeting next Tuesday night.

THE GALLINACEOUS CAUDAL APPENDAGE

This alluring beverage, better known by its vernacular or vulgar designation of "Cocktail," has ever had many devotees. Those who have formed the habit of imbibing this concoction regularly, affirm that, like Mr. Boffin's famous "veal pies," it is "werry mellerin to the organ." Even war conditions have not been sufficient to modify the thirst of those who have come under its magic spell. Consequently, the high cost of living has been considerably enhanced to those whose "coppers" need frequent irrigation.

An eminent psychological analyst has studied the effects of the seductive beverage, listing them in the following order:

First—Cocktail—Joyous optimism and benevolence.

Second—Great loquacity and tinge of belligerence.

Third—Defiant argumentation and truculent manner.

Fourth—Mild idiosyncrasy and higher criticism of friends and relatives.

Fifth—Exposure of family skeletons, and lachrymose sentimentality.

Sixth—Very precise pronunciation, and preternatural erectness of carriage.

Seventh—Unsteadiness of gait, and large, wide gestures.

Eighth—Maudlin talk, and strong desire for the Ninth—Same, only more so.

Tenth—Oblivion.

Not far from Narberth there is a famous hostelry, rich in historical associations, where the artist who presides over the distribution of beverages is extremely skillful in compounding the G. C. A. Connoisseurs maintain that they cannot be excelled for flavor and efficiency. Recently two pikers meandered down the pike to partake of these refreshing compounds, and Number One was soon painting joyous landscapes for their mind's eye. They did not think of gentle Will Shakespeare's Iago, who bitterly reproached himself for having put an enemy in his mouth that stole his brains away. At any rate, one who should have known better having reached the stage indicated above as Number Four, began criticizing the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. very audibly, announcing how little they had done, and generally condemning them for inefficiency. This seemed to afford vast satisfaction to the other habitués, who received these criticisms with great approval. As everybody in Narberth is perfectly well aware that never in the history of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. has there been greater efficiency shown, nor more accomplished than under the present management, it can only be concluded that the critic above mentioned meant exactly the opposite of what he expressed. Throw the blame on the G. C. A.

Y. M. C. A. Directors Meet Membership Campaign

The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Y. M. C. A. was held Monday evening at the residence of Mr. Charles E. Kreamer, chairman of the Board. After the regular routine business had been finished, the Membership Committee, through its chairman, Mr. Oddyke, reported progress. It is their intention to start a systematic campaign to secure new members, during the last two weeks of January. Announcement was made last week of a special rate for full membership for boys and girls for the year 1918 of $2. After January 31, the usual rate of $3 will be restored.

One of the directors has offered ten Junior Membership tickets to pupils of the Public School, five for girls and five for boys. The conditions are that at least fifteen girls and fifteen boys are to write a composition on the subject, "Why Narberth Boys and Girls Should Join the Y. M. C. A." The authors of the best five of each group will receive membership tickets for 1918. The judges of the contest are Messrs. Melchior, Nyce and Emmett. The compositions must all be handed in by January 25.

It is hoped that this membership campaign will be very successful. The new physical director will make the athletic work especially interesting to all boys and girls.

Mr. Nyce, general secretary, was present, and reported conditions encouraging. During December, the attendance was unusually large. He expressed satisfaction at the support thus far received from directors and managers. By direction of Chairman Kreamer, arrangements will be made for the presence of at least one director or manager each evening. Mr. Nyce has re-arranged the books in the library, and reports 500 missing. Hereafter, none are to be taken out with a card of record.

Mrs. Stickney, president, and Mrs. Chambley, treasurer, of the Ladies' Auxiliary, were present during the latter part of the meeting. Mrs. Chambley read a very interesting, detailed report of receipts and expenditures, showing the splendid work done by the Auxiliary during the past year. The total receipts were $1152.89, of which amount $904.27 has been turned over to the Y. M. C. A., leaving a balance of about $200 in the treasury of the Ladies' Auxiliary. Mrs. Stickney briefly summarized the various entertainments that had been given to raise this sum and at the conclusion of her recital, Chairman Kreamer expressed the very hearty appreciation of the directors for the work done, which he said was far ahead of anything ever done previously by the Auxiliary. This was followed by a resolution of thanks and commendation for the Ladies' Auxiliary, without whose aid the association would have been in very bad shape financially.

Mrs. Stickney stated that she would appoint committees, corresponding to the committees of directors, to confer with them on the various phases of Y. M. C. A. work. This week, arrangements will be made by the two Membership Committees for the coming membership campaign.

A drug store in the most modern sense of the term

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town:

Officer Hill had just passed a little terrace with a bit of garden in front, when a small boy ran after him.

"Hello, Kiddie," said the arm of the law, genially, "what can I do for you?"

"Mother sent me out," answered the youngster, "to ask if you would mind walking up and down our path for awhile. It's just been gravelled, and we ain't got a roller."

Dr. Hoffman, examining drafted man at Ardmore:

"Got any scars on you?"

"No, but I got some cigarettes over there in my coat."

By the way, Doc Hoffman is very absent-minded. At his wedding, at the point in the ceremony when he should have placed the ring on the bride's finger, he actually felt her pulse and asked her to put out her tongue.

Baron Harris has found his lost dog. Calls him Ginger because he snaps.

Mrs. Smith—"I saw your husband meet you in the street yesterday and I noticed that he removed his hat while speaking to you. I admired him for that. Very few men do that."

Mrs. Jones—"I remember. I told him in the morning to have his hair cut, and he was showing me that he had obeyed."

The wife of a prominent local physician always wears a locket. A friend recently said:

"I suppose you carry a memento of some sort in that locket of yours?"

"Yes, it is a lock of my husband's hair."

"But your husband is still alive."

"Yes, but his hair is gone."

Ed Griswold was about to take an examination for life insurance.

"You don't dissipate, do you?" asked the physician, as he made ready for tests. "Not a fast liver, or anything of that sort?"

Ed, hesitated a moment, looked a bit frightened, then replied: "I sometimes chew a little gum."

There are so many women around here doing army work, that we are sure some of their husbands are saying: "I only regret that I have but one wife to give for my country."

The Cub.

Alone, you can't even make a lent in the high cost of living; but by co-operating with your townsmen, you can put over the Narberth Plan and that will cut the cost of living and give you better goods. Full particulars of the plan will be announced at the town meeting in the Arcade Theatre, next Tuesday evening, January 15.

A NATURAL BRIDGE IN ARIZONA

Natural Bridge, on Pine Creek in the northern part of Gila county, is one of the greatest natural curiosities in the United States, equaling if not surpassing the Natural Bridge of Virginia. It spans the creek at a height of about 200 feet, and the walls of the canyon rise above it on either side 700 or 800 feet, and on one side form a perpendicular precipice. The bridge is of lime formation, and the inside of the great arch, which is some 250 feet across, is worn by the water as smooth as though chiseled by the skillful hands of a stonemason. The arch on top is nearly, if not quite, 400 feet in width, 1000 feet in length across the canyon and at the thinnest part only six feet through. About the centre of the arch is a hole large enough to admit the body of a man and through which one can look down into the crystal pool of water 200 feet below.—Silver Belt.

Cottage Prayer Meeting

Until further notice there will be no week night meetings held in the church. All business, social and prayer meetings will be held in the homes of the members. Two prayer services will be conducted this Wednesday evening. The south side meeting is held in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Chalfant, Essex and Chestnut avenues, with Mr. Chalfant leading. The north side service will meet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kreamer, Forrest avenue, and will be in charge of the pastor. All members are invited to the nearest service.

Items of Interest

The work of the Epworth League is flourishing. Despite the loss of so many of the young men in the service and a number of young people attending college, the attendance the past month has been the best of the winter. The newly elected officers are planning for many activities.

Inclement weather has not retarded Sunday school enthusiasm. Five new scholars have joined the school in the last two weeks. More men and boys are in the school than girls. You will enjoy our school.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

ELECTS OFFICERS

The young people of the Epworth League in "The Little Church on the Hill" are putting new life and interest in the work of the chapter. At a recent meeting the following were elected to hold office for the first half of the new year: President, Irving C. Dodge; first vice president, Margaret Matthews; second vice president, Jean Chalfant; third vice president, Nona Walters; fourth vice president, Miriam Ward; secretary, John Dickie; treasurer, Quincy Yowell; organist, Mildred Smith; assistant organist, May Chalfant.

Interesting and inspirational meetings are conducted every Sunday evening. Good leaders and live topics are always provided.

COTTAGE PRAYER MEETINGS

In order to assist in coal conservation "The Little Church on the Hill" will hold its prayer services and business meetings in the homes of the members until further notice. All Sunday services will be maintained as usual.

Two cottage prayer meetings are to be conducted each Wednesday evening. This week, January 9, the services will be held in the homes of the Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Chalfant, on the South side, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kreamer, on the North side. The leaders for this week are the Reverends Mr. Chalfant and Mr. Koppel. All members are requested to attend the nearest service. Different leaders will be provided every week.

There will be a congregational social held in the church next Monday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society and the Westminster Circle. The entire congregation is invited.

The Boy Scouts will tell next Sunday morning in the Sunday school, how John the Baptist observed ten Boy Scout laws.

Church Notes

The subject of the children's object sermon next Sunday will be "Hard Words." Four large cartoons will be used in giving the lesson.

The annual church day and business meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 15, at 8 P. M., in the church parlors.

Beginning Wednesday evening, January 16, the church will take for the subject of the mid-week services chapters in the book, "Studies for Personal Workers," by Howard A. Johnston.

At the communion services last Sunday morning five new members were given the hand of fellowship. The services throughout the day were very well attended and a deep interest prevailed.

We shall be glad to welcome you to any or all of these services.

You have growled a good bit about the high cost of living, so if you mean business, you will have your opportunity to help in reducing prices, if you attend the town meeting at the Arcade Theatre, next Tuesday night, January 15.

Mrs. Blueblood—We dined at fresco last evening.

Mrs. Newrich—I think I've met him somewhere. Is his first name Albert or Alfred?—Boston Transcript.

WIT AND HUMOR

Rachel—Here is your ring, Solomon. I can never marry you, for I love another."

Solomon—Vere iss de man you lof?

Vot iss his name?

Rachel—Goodness. Solomon! You won't kill him?

Solomon—No; I will sell him der ring sheap.

The good priest had come to his parishioner after the funeral of the latter's mother-in-law to express condolence.

"And what complaint was it, Pat," he asked sympathetically, "that carried the old lady off?"

"Kumplaint, did you ask, father?" answered Pat. "There was no kumplaint from anybody. Everybody was satisfied."

Sandy and John were sitting in a bus, when a pretty girl got in and smiled at the former. He raised his hat.

"Do you know her?" asked the Englishman.

"Oh, yes, very well," the Scot replied.

"Well, shall we go and sit over beside her, and then you can introduce me?" asked his companion.

"Wait a bit," returned the cannie Scot. "She hasn't paid her fare yet."

Maud—That is Miss Ryno, the heiress. She was born, you know, with a silver spoon in her mouth.

Mabel (inspecting her)—She looks as if it might have been a soup ladle.

Johnny Jones, the office boy, had been detected in a lie. It was not one of the ordinary prevarications of the everyday world, and, moreover, to make the crime more grievous, he persisted in adhering to his original mendacious statement.

"Do you know, my lad," asked a fatherly clerk, in a kindly fashion, "what becomes of young lads who trifle with the truth?"

"Aye," was the reply, "bosses send the out as travelers when they grow up."

Teacher—Now, James, do you understand the meaning of the word "extinct?"

James—Yes, 'm.

Teacher—Then name one bird that is now extinct.

James—Chipper.

Teacher—Chipper! What kind of bird is that?

James—My pet pigeon. The cat caught him this morning.

William IV. possessed on occasion a ready tact which is so happy as to be wit. The story runs that when dining with several officers he ordered a waiter to "take away that marine," pointing to an empty bottle. "Your Majesty!" exclaimed one of the officers, "do you compare an empty bottle to a member of our branch of the service?"

"Yes," answered the King. "I mean to say it has done its duty once, and is ready to do it again."

Terence O'Grady had been married only a week, but his bride was already making things lively in the little house in Ballybunion. He had been working for three hours in his garden when Bridget came to the door and called out in strident tones:

"Terence, me bhoy, come in to tay, toast, and five eggs."

Terence dropped his spade in astonishment and ran into the kitchen.

"Shure, Bridget, me darlint, ye're only coddin' me," he said.

"Bedad, Terence, my bhoy," said Bridget, "it's not ye—it's the naybors Oi'm coddin'."

As the stout man, whose voracious appetite had excited the envy of the other boarders, turned to leave the drawing-room and mount up to bed, he changed to glance down at his waistcoat.

"I declare," he exclaimed, ruefully, "if I haven't gone and lost two buttons off my vest."

The landlady gave him the benefit of that chill gaze her boarders had come to know so well.

"I think it highly probable," she announced, in clear harsh tones, "that you will find both of them in the dining-room."

Journalist—Good gracious, no! I want to "interview" him!

THE FIRESIDE

January 30th will be "Tag your shovel" day, in which 21,000,000 school children in the United States will have a part. No cash collections. Plenty of information on this subject later.

The high grade pictures which are being shown in "The Arcade" are drawing the better element of the town. Quite a number of our citizens "de luxe" were noticeable in the audience Saturday evening.

The Merion Cricket Club has closed its golf club house and will keep the building shut until spring arrives. This action was decided upon by the board of governors in response to a suggestion of Dr. Harry Garfield, the national fuel administrator, made in an open letter to the United States Golf Association recently.

A RECITAL

A recital will be given by Gertrude E. Wright, soprano, assisted by Piotr Wazla, Polish baritone; Bernard Poland, tenor; Henry Lukens, at the piano; Mrs. B. Franklin Armiger, reader, at Elm Hall, Narberth, Pa., Monday evening, January 21, 1918, 8.15 o'clock. Dancing will follow the recital.

Are you looking for ways to cut down your market bill? Go to the Arcade Theatre, opposite the postoffice, next Tuesday evening, January 15, and hear about the Narberth Plan.

WHY NARBERTH BOYS AND GIRLS SHOULD JOIN THE Y. M. C. A.

This is the absorbing topic in the minds of several dozen of the youthful literary aspirants in our public schools, now busily composing essays on the theme in a contest made possible by the generosity of Mr. A. L. Loos. The goal is a Free Membership Ticket which Mr. Loos has announced he will give to each of ten contestants, five boys and five girls, whose productions entitle them to the prizes.

The contest shall be entered by at least fifteen boys and fifteen girls, as many more being permitted to write as wish to do so. Composition shall be not less than 200 nor more than 400 words in length, and must be completed by Friday, January 25, 1918.

The five best compositions by boys and the five best by girls will entitle the authors to receive these free membership tickets. The character of argument, style of composition, orthography and handwriting will all be taken into account.

The judges appointed by Mr. Loos are: Prof. William T. Melchior, principal of the Narberth Public Schools; Mr. A. V. Emmett, physical director, and W. G. Nyce, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

It is confidently expected that many creditable productions will be received, and it is hoped that some of these may be published in future numbers of Our Town.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.
As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, addresses, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

As long as a man does his level best he isn't going down hill.
